BUSINESS TRANSFORMATION USING AI/ML AND ANALYTICS

Friday, 2nd April, 2021 | 6 PM - 7 PM

Artificial Intelligence (AI), Machine Learning (ML) and Business Analytics are going to be the primary growth drivers for industries in the coming decade. As organizations focus more on automation and data-driven decision-making, adoptions of these technologies will be crucial for competitive advantage. Of course, the adoption is not going to be easy and would require strategic planning and
